CROW SWEEPS THE COUNTY; PENROSE
AN EASY WINNER*Race Between McCormick and Ryan is Considered Close.*BRUMBAUGH TAKES EVERYTHING*Returns on Legislative Ticket Indicate Nomination of Smith, Horton and Sinclair; Cochran, Keegan and Keefer Leading on Democratic Ticket.

State Senator W. E. Crow has carried Fayette county in an overwhelming vote. The opposition of E. D. Brown and J. W. Dawson was not serious and only in isolated districts was there a real fight. United States Senator Dole Penrose will carry Fayette by a wide margin over J. Benjamin Dimmick, who made a miserable showing.

It may take an official count to determine some of the winners on the Democratic ticket. A Mitchell Palmer and his little trouble winning over Henry Budd for the United States Senate nomination, but Michael J. Ryan is giving Vance G. McCormick Palmer's running mate, a struggle. The Democratic legislative fight is close. Although Cochran, Keegan and Keefer are leading, Cochran seems to be the only one of the three virtually certain of the nomination.

On the Republican ticket, Smith, Horton and Sinclair were easy winners over Francis, Sutton and Sipe. The Washington party vote was small throughout the county. Few figures are available at this hour.

The fight in the state was almost a repetition of what happened in Fayette county. Senator Penrose will be nominated over Dimmick by a wide margin. Dimmick made a good showing in only a few counties. He carried Lackawanna, his home district, but elsewhere his vote was small.

Indications are that both Palmer and McCormick have won out on the Democratic ticket, although the Ryan vote was heavy. Ryan failed to make the expected showing in Philadelphia. Indications are that Judge Bailey, who was led the Fayette ticket in this county and that he was one of the men nominated for judge of the Supreme Court. Judge Bailey will likely be his opponent in the election. Returns from various districts in the county show the following results:

REPUBLICAN—State Senate, Crow 22, Brown 3, Dawson 7, Assembly, Horton 29, Sinclair 31, Smith 20, Francis 9, Sutton 5, Sipe 10, United States Senator, Penrose 22, Dimmick 11.

MEDIATORS ARRIVE AND PREPARE FOR CONFERENCE*South American Embassies Scheduled to Go Into Effect Tomorrow at 3 O'clock.*This Afternoon.

By Associated Press.
NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., May 20.—Everything was ready today for the opening of the mediation conference which under the guidance of Ambassador de Gama of Brazil and Ministers Nao of Argentina and Suarez of Chile is to attempt to compose the differences between the United States and Mexico.

To welcome the visitors to Canadian territory the Duke of Cornwall, Governor General of Canada, delegated Martin Burrell, minister of agriculture and Senator Loughheed to come here from Ottawa. The formal opening of the conference was set for 3 P. M. today.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 20.—Anxiety among officials here over the inability to get definite word from American Vice Consul John R. Sullivan who was reported released from prison at Santiago more than a week ago, was reported today in the morning American's behalf.

Evidencing his own apprehension, Secretary Bryan telegraphed to American Consul General at Monterey asking if it would be feasible to send a messenger to Santiago to determine if Sullivan ever had been released. Captain Willis of the Coast Artillery at Key West, notified Secretary of War Garrison today by telegraph that he had obtained an affidavit from A. V. Island, late arrived from Vera Cruz, indicating that the American soldier who wandered from the American lines at Vera Cruz, had been executed.

Washington officials are anxiously awaiting definite news of battle in progress between Federal and rebels in front of Santiago but queries for information sent to border points have brought no rapid communication. It was stated, undoubtedly had been out with Santiago.

That every effort will be made by the United States to maintain the port of Tampico free and open to commerce was declared today by Acting Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt. While no definite orders were issued the acting secretary said that if necessary steps would be taken to prevent a blockade by either Mexican Federalists or Rebels.

FIX TEACHERS' SALARIESSchool Board Holds Secret Caucus Behind Locked Doors.

The salary list of the school teachers for the coming term was agreed upon at a caucus of the school board held behind locked doors in the office of President F. E. Youngkin, in the Title & Trust Building last night. A special meeting of the board will be called in the near future to approve the list formally.

The caucus was held as the result of word sent out to the members yesterday. For a time there was uncertainty as to whether it was to be a meeting or a conference. The difference between the two is that the proceedings of a meeting are on record for the public to see while those of a conference do not. Even a few minutes before the meeting convened there was doubt as to what it was to be. A school board representative expressed his intention of being on hand if it was to be a meeting and started out for the office, the board suddenly came to the conclusion that caucus was the proper designation. School board is great for holding "caucuses," some of which become meetings before they are adjourned.

TOLLS VOTE DELAYED.Senator Kerns Effort to Set Date is

WASHINGTON, May 20.—An attempt by Senator Kern, Democratic leader, to get unanimous consent for a vote May 27 on the Panama tolls repeal bill was defeated today when Senator McCumber objected.

"The time has not yet come to fix date for voting," the North Dakota Senator insisted.

Likely Nominees for Republican
Congressmen-at-Large; Bright, Catton, Sobott and Shirley, Democrats.

By Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Hopes for the Republican, A. Mitchell Palmer, Democrat, and Clifford Pinchot, Washington, will make the fight for United States Senator in Pennsylvania according to the verdict of the statewide primaries held yesterday. While complete returns are not available enough districts have been reported to determine the personnel of the various party tickets in the next election.

Martin G. Brumbaugh was nominated for Governor by Republicans and defeated by the Democrats. The so-called "blue" for Congressmen-at-Large went through without a hitch. Thomas S. Crane of Waynesburg, former congressman from this district, led with 52 votes. The runner-up, John L. Robinson, was followed by Logan, 48; Marshall, 45; and Scott, 34. Lafayette, with 287, was a member of the United Fruit Company, operated in the Montezuma river district. According to the story, he had incurred the hatred of many of the Indians because of his process with dice. In a game recently in which Nazama's father participated, he won all the old man's money and then, in a drunken fashion, the old man suggested his daughter. He lost. As is customary among those Indians, the girl did not object to her part of the transaction and was taken to the home of her father. Lee Smith received 519, Duncan Sinclair 471, Victor E. Francis 143, Emmet Sipe 102 and George E. Sutton 94.

There was virtually no opposition to Martin G. Brumbaugh, the Philadelphia school man, for Governor, and he was handily elected. His vote was 523 to 118 scattered among three opponents. Frank McClain easily led for lieutenant governor and Henry Hoekel had no opposition for secretary of state. Robert P. Hopwood, without opposition for congress from this district, received 506 votes.

NON-PARTISAN RESULTSJudge Robert S. Frazer Gets a Big Vote Here.

Judge Robert S. Frazer led on the non-partisan ballot here for Supreme Court Judge. He received 535 votes. Judge Frazer was born in Fayette county, which largely accounted for the support given his candidacy. H. L. Robinson, a Uniontown attorney, actively interested in town and prohibition movements, was second with 301. Other candidates followed in order: G. A. Endlich, 74; Wilbur Wilkins, 25; George Kunkel, 21; Emory A. Walling, 18; and J. J. Kinter, 10.

For the Superior Court, James E. Clark led with 519. Frank M. Trexler had 287, James E. Clark, 241 and Thomas J. Prather, supposed to have been slayed by the Democrats, 39.

PENROSE CARRIES SOMERSET.Dimmick Makes a Good Run in the Mountain County.

SOMERSET, May 20.—Indications are that Senator Penrose has carried Somerset county by a small margin. Forty out of the 58 districts gave him 879 votes to 713 for Dimmick.

In the same district, the vote for State Senate was as follows: James W. Endsley 665, Charles J. Hemminger 510, Amos W. Knepper 235.

Indications point to that nomination on the Republican ticket for assembly of St. D. Steel and J. P. Stiller. The vote is Steel 760, Stiller 392, Lohr 652 and Miller 452.

His Return from Brazil.

By Associated Press.
OYSTERS BAY, May 20.—Twelve hours after Theodore Roosevelt returned from South America he was back today in the thick of politics. He was up early and as soon as breakfast was over he was hard at work picking up the threads where he dropped them several months ago.

Colonel Roosevelt, it was learned today, looks forward to one of the hardest campaigns of his career.

Natural Gas Too Cheap.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 20.—The necessity of increasing the rates for natural gas throughout the United States was discussed at the ninth annual convention of the National Gas Association of America, in session here today.

The decrease in the supply and expense of piping from foreign fields was the argument advanced.

DEMOCRATS SCARCE*In Spite of Bitter Contest
Within the Party, Ballots are Few.*REPUBLICANS ARE HARMONIOUS*Horton, Sinclair and Smith Lead for Non-Partisan Ticket; Other Results.

Although there was virtually no fight between the Republican candidates, but party politics nearly 700 votes in yesterday's primary here to a few more than 800 votes for the Democrats, who had a merry war within the primary. The results indicate a sweeping victory for the Republican candidates at the polls next November.

State Senator William E. Crow was an easy winner here, having 484 votes to 35 for E. D. Brown and 38 for J. W. Dawson. In the seventh ward, Crow was given a Washington party vote to 1 for Dawson, Washington party voters there writing his name on the ballot. In not a word was there serious opposition to the Senator. The story repeated all over the county is told here, of a sweeping victory for the Republicans.

The showing of Dole Penrose in his fight for re-nomination to the United States Senate surprised even his best friends here. He polled 549 votes to 240 for J. Benjamin Dimmick. Dimmick was unknown, but it had been predicted that he would poll a high vote as a protest against Penrose. This prediction was widely inaccurate. The most surprising feature of the Penrose vote was that in the fourth ward, where the Senator was given $24 for his opponent. As the fourth cannot be considered an organization ward, the strength of Penrose amazed students of political affairs.

The so-called "blue" for Congressmen-at-Large went through without a hitch. Thomas S. Crane of Waynesburg, former congressman from this district, led with 52 votes. The runner-up, John L. Robinson, was followed by Logan, 48; Marshall, 45; and Scott, 34. Lafayette, with 287, was a member of the United Fruit Company, operated in the Montezuma river district. According to the story, he had incurred the hatred of many of the Indians because of his process with dice. In a game recently in which Nazama's father participated, he won all the old man's money and then, in a drunken fashion, the old man suggested his daughter. He lost. As is customary among those Indians, the girl did not object to her part of the transaction and was taken to the home of her father. Lee Smith received 519, Duncan Sinclair 471, Victor E. Francis 143, Emmet Sipe 102 and George E. Sutton 94.

Frank McClain easily led for lieutenant governor and Henry Hoekel had no opposition for secretary of state. Robert P. Hopwood, without opposition for congress from this district, received 506 votes.

Among the Democrats, Palmer and McCormick won the town by a narrow margin. Palmer received 144 votes for United States Senator to 144 for Budd. For governor, Vance C. Horton led with 177 votes to 163 for Michael J. Ryan. The Ryan supporters were disappointed. They expected to carry the town.

The fight on Frank M. Semana Jr. for sheriff was a close one. Semana, a local politician, was opposed by the Sterling machine, was successful here. William A. Griffin received 133 votes to 123 for Semana. Semana Jr. was elected.

In the legislative fight, the Democrats were made to scratch Duncan Sinclair and use slickers on Harry H. Cotton. The total vote for Assembly was Paul H. Beatty, 46; William L. Gans, 43; Duncan Sinclair, 29; Harry A. Cotton, 14. There was also a mild fight over the governorship. William Draper Lewis received 12 votes to 24 for Charles M. Brumm, Lewis was slayed by the Philadelphia-Yorkburg faction.

Fighting was kept up for many days and, according to the story reaching here, the bodies of 64 negroes were found. Just how many Indians were killed probably never will be known.

Health Officer Out of Office.

When the election board of the First ward finished counting the ballots in the health officer's office at the city hall late last night they locked the door and took the key with them. No one seemed to remember that the room is in daily use at the present time.

This morning Health Officer George Hesel was unable to effect an entrance to his office. He was finally forced to secure a ladder and mount to the second story window.

James M. Murphy, a well known resident of Dunbar township, died yesterday at his home at the Furnace, following a lingering illness. His widow and seven children survive.

NEW ORLEANS, May 20.—The United Fruit Company today was using its wireless in an effort to confirm a strange story of a race riot reported to have occurred on one of its plantations in Guatemala, in which it is reported 64 negroes and probably 100 Indians were killed.

Smouldering race hatred of the native Indians for negroes inflamed by one of the negroes winning the Indian girl, Nazama, from her father at dice and his refusal to sell her back to the Indians because of his process with dice. The story came to New Orleans by mail.

The negro, Clarence Williams, had been working on one of the plantations of the United Fruit Company, operated in the Montezuma river district. According to the story, he had incurred the hatred of many of the Indians because of his process with dice. In a game recently in which Nazama's father participated, he won all the old man's money and then, in a drunken fashion, the old man suggested his daughter. He lost. SCHOOL BELLS RING AT NIGHT;
BOYS' PRANK RESPONSIBLE*Youths, The Boys to Bellows and Stretch Them Through Windows to the Ground.

Mysterious ringing of the bells on the Fourth street and Fourth ward schools last night caused some excitement in the vicinity of the buildings. At about 9 o'clock the bells changed out though the rooms were in total darkness and there seemed to be nobody about.

The mystery was solved at the Fourth ward building by Engineer John Patterson who lives but a short distance away. While he hung the bell clanking he hurried down and caught several boys, none of them students, who had climbed into the building through a window on the lower floor, tied a long rope to the clapper of the bell, threw it out of the window and were ringing it lustily from a dark spot on the south side of the structure. The boys were released but Mr. Patterson got about 150 feet of good rope for his trouble.

The clamor of the Fourth street bell about 10 o'clock caused much alarm, the residents fearing that some great disaster was impending. A crowd gathered about and the police station on the West Side was called. Officers Francis and Yoder were sent out to make an investigation. Several persons in the crowd were positive that someone was in the building, although it was in total darkness.

The key was secured from the janitor Jesse Herbert and on investigation the mystery was solved when it was discovered that the ringing was the result of the school boys, who had climbed up on to the porch and from there gained entrance to the building. Going to the bell rope, tied a clothes line to the bell rope and proceeded with the rope somewhere in the neighborhood of the Pennsylvania water tanks about 50 yards away. The boys, who were found several boys on the end of the rope, he having investigated when he heard the bell ringing.

It was discovered this afternoon by the school authorities that the boys caught last night were not the right ones. Two high school juniors were the guilty ones. They were given a severe lecture.

DANDRUFFY HEADS BECOME HAIRLESS

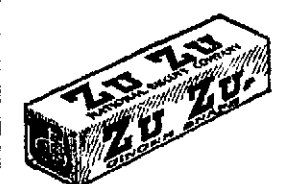

Scalp Dries—Chokes Out the Hair and Prevents Its Growth.
If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to destroy it entirely. Do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid soap, apply it at night when retiring, use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.
By so doing, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely destroy and entirely destroy, every single dandruff and thus it.

You will find, too, that all itching and itching of the scalp will stop, and your hair will be silky, shiny, lustrous and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid soap at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is a small tin. You will need no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—Adv.

CONFESSION THROWN OUT

Dago Frank's Statement Before Election Won't Aid Becker.

NEW YORK, May 20.—The confession that Dago Frank made an hour before he went to the electric chair at Sing Sing will not help Charles Becker in his fight to prove the innocence of the murder of Herman Rosenthal for which Dago Frank and his three companions already have paid the penalty.

The supreme court, before which Becker is on trial for the second time, refused to admit testimony dealing with this confession.

Becker's face fell when he heard the ruling. The court held that evidence pertaining to the confession was not admissible because it was an incident that occurred after the murder.

WEDNESDAY EVE'G, MAY 20, 1914

THE PRIMARY ELECTION.

The statewide primary had its first trial yesterday. The results indicate that the primary system is useful in indicating the trend of party and public sentiment if it does not fully and finally represent the political judgment of the whole people. It is argued in its behalf that it takes the matter of making party nominations out of the hands of the bosses and places it in the hands of the individual members of the party where it should be. Theoretically, the rule is perfect; practically, it is a rule with many exceptions. The primary law proceeds upon the assumption that the voters will exercise the proud privilege conferred upon them. There was apparently almost if not quite as much interest in the primary as there is in the average state election, yet a relatively small percentage of the full vote was polled, and what is more to the point THIS RESULTS ARE EMPYRICALLY THE SAME AS THEY WOULD HAVE BEEN UNDER THE OLD SYSTEM.

As a matter of fact, such "boss domination" as the political parties have had has always been with the consent of the voters themselves. Whenever the latter have felt dissatisfied enough to rise against it, no political machine ever devised has been strong enough to stand against them. THE PEOPLE DO RULE.

A great deal has been said in Pennsylvania about the bossism of Senator Boies Penrose. It will be remembered that the Republicans deposed him in 1912 and set in his place his old political opponent, William Penn. Since then, however, things have been happening. Penrose accepted the verdict and continued a Republican, fighting for the preservation of the Republican party and promotion of those principles which all honest Republicans sincerely believe are the best rules by which the feet of the nation can be guided. Penn joined the revolt against the Republican party led by Theodore Roosevelt to serve his own inequitable ambition. The result was the election of Wilson, the ascendancy of Bryan, the imposition upon the country of unwise Democratic policies and the reluctant retreat of prosperity. Under such circumstances, the recall of Penrose is not at all strange. REPUBLICANS ARE TURNING TO THEIR OLD PARTY AND FORTHRIGHT LEADERSHIP IN THIS UNWHOLE-SOME CONDITION OF THE COUNTRY.

The bossism of Senator Crow in Fayette county has been a favorite subject of remark by his enemies. The organs of the opposition never get tired telling us what a bad man he is. The Bull Moose organ has been particularly busy in reviling him and in prophesying his utter destruction at this primary. He ignored this flood of filth and falsehood and rested his case with the people of Fayette county, who know him better than some of those who libel him. HIS FAITH WAS NOT MISPLACED; HIS LEADERSHIP IS OVERWHELMING; HIS VINDICATION IS COMPLETE.

As a Republican, Crow has been faithful to his party and his leadership, hence the Republicans are faithful to him; as a man he has been faithful to his friends, hence his friends are faithful to him; and the fact that his number of Democratic halloo indicates that his friends are not confined to the Republican party. Senator Crow is the Republican leader in Fayette county because he measures up to the Jeffersonian standard and has the confidence of the Fayette county Republicans. A LEADER LIKE THAT IS ALWAYS THE TARGET FOR THE OPPOSITION'S ABUSE.

On the Democratic side, the primary returns are not so decisive and the primary method not quite so satisfactory in spite of all the power of prestige and patronage and the presence within the state of two members of President Wilson's cabinet calling on the Democratic voters to nominate Palmer and McCormick, an unorganized and unfed opposition approximates a division of the vote with them, and leaves it a matter of fair doubt whether they are really the choice of a majority of the members of the Democratic party. It also uncovers another unpleasant inference, namely, that a great many citizens enrolled as Democrats did not participate in the Democratic primary for the reason that they are dissatisfied with business conditions and ARE NOT GOING TO VOTE THAT TICKET THIS FALL.

The primary election is over. The Republican nominations have been made by a decisive vote. There can be no doubt that the candidates are the fair choice of the party. It is, therefore, the duty of every good Republican, no matter what his primary preferences were, TO SUPPORT THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Now let's us make it unanimous.

The enterprising reporter announced yesterday that the dedication of the Young Men's Christian Association building at Dickerson Run, June 10, next, would be on the 44th anniversary of General Manager John's entrance into the Lake Erie service. It should have read into the railroad service. Jim isn't as old as that, he's only a boy yet.

Colonel Bill Stone's Bull Moose Record says Crow carried the county by "boodle and booze." We may differ as to the agencies, but we will all have to agree that the job was thoroughly done.

The Bull Moose organ predicted Senator Crow's defeat. This was a fitting conclusion to its famous campaign of bluff, bluster and falsehood.

It is Penrose, Palmer and Pinchot, but the greatest of these will be Penrose.

M. Clyde Kelley got his. This Kelley was too green for the Homestead district.

The Barfoot organ of Conneltsville and the Young region hasn't anything to brag about.

The Bull Moose organ says it was a "carnival of corruption." Looked to most people like a carnival of personal abuse with the Bull Moose bugle leading the procession.

If Crow's name had been on the Democratic ticket we shudder to think what might have happened to Hilber.

The bond issue proposition was not a matter of much doubt after all. The citizens of Conneltsville are sensible people.

Conneltsville had a curfew last night, but it is not clear whether it was intended to apply to the school board caucus or the Democratic party.

The Fourth Ward was practically unanimous for Penrose. Sure; that's where we live.

Although New York city is the second greatest in the world, there are large sections within its confines where houses are few and woodlands and farms make up the landscape. Such a place is the town of Woodside, in Queens borough, on Long Island. On the outskirts of this little town there has been for some time an animal training farm. Wild beasts from all over the world are reared there and tamed. It is said by some who have been permitted to visit this institution that harsh methods are in vogue. For instance, a newly imported lion is beaten with iron bars and covered by punishment. Happily this is not the method of the little girl here pictured. She believes and practices the idea of gentle ways. She is a daughter of one of the wild beast trainers and has been brought up among animals. Her way of training is by love. The two little kids are examples of her kindly ways with animals. They know she is their friend.

A Diamond Explosion.
Sounds rather astounding, does it not?

And yet according to an expert who gave a lecture before the Royal Society of Arts, London, diamonds are quite likely to explode.

He quoted various instances of diamonds exploded on being taken from the diamond mines and said that such an explosion at our ears after being released from the mines. So don't take diamonds for granted.

Diamonds are supposed to be formed through the action of carbon at great temperature under such pressure as could exist only at great depths below ground. The expert remarked that by the time the precious stones had worked their way up toward the surface through volcanic disturbances and within grasp of the surface the great pressure was gone.

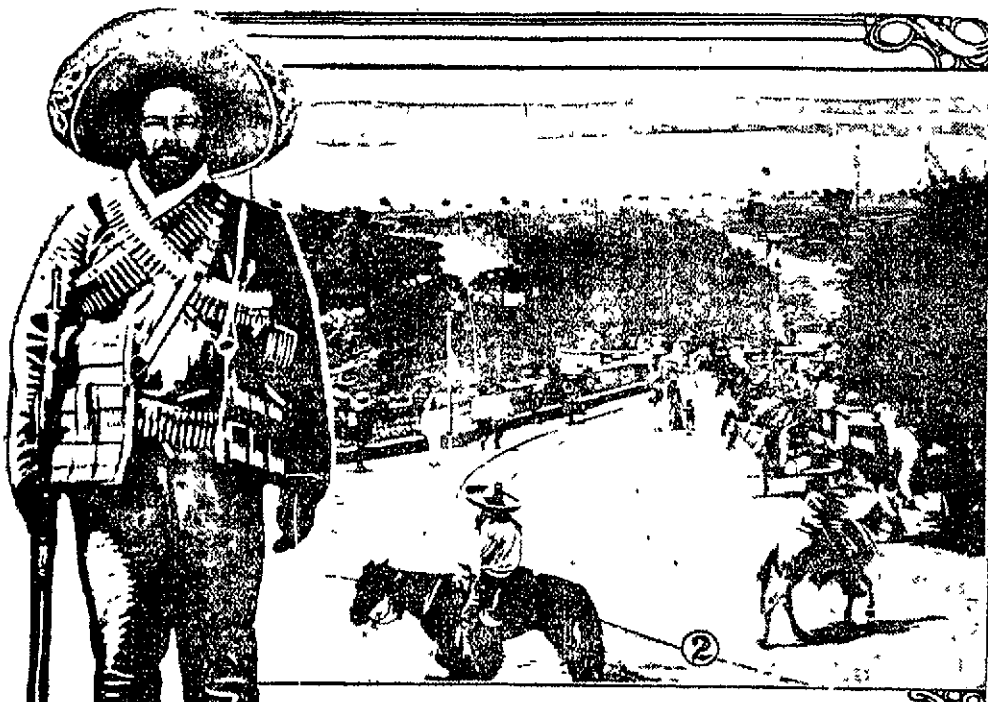

A Canal Underground.
The most remarkable canal in the world is the one between Worcester and St. Helena in the north of England. It is six to eight miles long and underground from one end to the other. Throughout Lancashire the coal mines are extensive and many years ago the Duke of Bridgewater's managers thought it would save money by tunneling the coal underground in six of it to the surface. So the canal was constructed and the mines were connected and drained at the same time.

Ordinary canal boats are used, but now furnish the power. On the roof of the canal are cross pieces, and the men who do the work of propelling the craft lie on the roof on their backs and push with their feet against these crosspieces on the roof.

Catacombs of the Dead.

Eleven million of them in London, in Kent, and in other parts of the country, are covered the catacombs of the ancient Britons which are now much visited by tourists. It is said that for a part at least by electric lights. Over fifty miles of chambers, cut in the chalk cliffs, have been discovered. The dead were buried in these chambers when attacked by their northern enemies and have thus lived many of them dead. The stone in which the human skeletons were made is said to be seen and also the wall from which water is drawn to this day.

Relief in Music.

"Did you enjoy yourself at the concert?"
"Very much. A musical is a great relief after a series of hard parties. You don't have to take part in conversations or remember what the trumpet is."—Boston Record.

TWENTY FURNACES GO OUT OF BLAST IN MONTH APRIL

Production Shows Slight Effect Because Most of Them

BLOW OUT LAST OF THE MONTH

Decline Will Be More Seriously Felt During the Present Month; 14 of the Furnaces Were Steel Interest Stacks; Merchant Production.

The April pig iron output is estimated and compared by the Cleveland Iron Trade Review as follows: While pig iron production in April showed only a small decline, there were 75 less stacks in blast on April 30 than on the last day of March. Of these furnaces, now 146, more than half were blown out during the last week of April, so that their influence in the month's total output was comparatively small, but will be felt more seriously during the present month.

The total output of coke and anthracite pig iron in April was 2,281,501 tons, compared with 2,311,551 tons in March, a loss of 30,050 tons. This decline was ascribed largely to the shorter month, as the decline in average daily production was only 181 tons. The average output in April was 75,383 tons against 75,551 tons in March. The merchant furnaces showed the greater decline in output. The output of merchant iron in April was 609,733 tons compared with 649,511 tons in March, a loss of 39,778 tons. In average daily output, the merchant furnaces showed a decline of 310 tons, average production for April being 20,326 tons and for March 21,276 tons.

The small influence exerted by the large number of stacks going out of blast, is more clearly shown by the figures for production of the steel works or non-merchant furnaces. While there was a loss of 16 in a 48-day output, the average daily output showed a gain. Production of steelmaking iron in April was 1,629,224 tons against 1,629,224 tons in March, a loss of 16,448 tons. In daily average the figure for April was 54,339 tons and for March 54,755 tons, a gain of 416 tons.

There were 232 stacks active on March 31 and 212 on April 30. Three merchant furnaces were blown in and seven blown out, a net loss of four. Sixteen steel works stacks were put out and none relighted. In all, three stacks were relighted and 23 blown out.

Pig iron output in April was 17,100 tons, compared with 17,787 tons in March, a loss of 687 tons. The production of steel in April was 5,984 tons and in March 6,419 tons, a loss of 435 tons.

CHINESE COAL

British Government Will Investigate Coal Fields There.

With the approval of the foreign office, arrangements are being made for the dispatch of an expedition to the Chinese province of Shensi to investigate and report on the newly discovered coal fields there.

If the reports on coal in official quarters are borne out, the coal fields are probably the most extensive in the world, and the deposits are of the greatest moment because of their proximity to all parts which have secured been exported even by the natives owing to the absence of suitable machinery.

The Chinese government has promised all necessary facilities for the work of the proposed expedition.

WITH a statement of the facts regarding the extent of choice, character of the clothes—their worth and desirability—we leave it to you who know the store, to decide whether it's a golden opportunity or not. The selling starts Thursday, this week.

There are suits for every possible occasion of dress-utility or formal wear. The sizes and models are for misses, junior and women of regular or uncommon build. The garments are from reliable makers, some of note, whose creations are very elaborate and original. But all the suits in stock are not thus distinguished—we have two-piece garments decidedly practical, with elegant lines charmingly simple; and there's models between the two extremes—clever suits that can be worn frequently without losing in interest to the wearer.

The textures and trimmings: linings and finish, are rich and beautiful. The perfect weaves are plain or fancy and colored exquisitely. Every color-tone in vogue this season is represented as well as the most of the odd, unusual weaves.

Of great importance to modish dressers is this fact: Every garment in stock is a 1914 spring and summer model. No suits were carried over from last season. We believe that no other store here can bear out a like statement. The oldest suit we have is not three months in stock—if any remain from those first to arrive. You will find advance late summer models in this collection—suits not yet shown elsewhere; and SILK suits—copied from the models of celebrated designers.

You who seek truly fine clothes, will find them here at prices that will not buy garments of like fashionableness, nor equal texture and goodness, anywhere else in town.

Here, suit assortments offer the best choice of refined, in-fashion apparel. Such is the intention of this better store. To hold the interest of a critical, style-schooled patronage, our Floor of Fashions must present, the instant it is approved, each vogue of the moment. We are doing it, and letting the very newest things go for even LOWER prices than are asked elsewhere for things without the merit of quality or recent fashion newness.

IT'S NOT OFTEN PATTERN HATS SELL AT SHORTENED PRICES

PATTERN HATS are the carefully trimmed creations of a high style-class that serve as models. They are correct to the smallest detail, made of very fine materials, and depict the newest fashion ideas. Certain style notes are copied from the pattern hats into less expensive modes, but the hat, as a whole, is never duplicated here.

Some are Decorated With Long, Exquisitely Tinted Aigrettes—

the most beautiful of trimmings, the sale of which is prohibited after July 1st. There is no law, however, against their being worn on hats, or used for hair ornamentation. These pattern hats are also enriched with splendid ornaments, flowers of an unusual beauty, fine ostrich trimmings, silk velvets and other highly prized embellishments. The shapes are the newest dress modes. Prices are changed thus:

$11.25 FOR $15.00 MODEL HATS
$13.50 FOR $18.00 MODEL HATS
$15.00 FOR $20.00 MODEL HATS
$16.88 FOR $22.50 MODEL HATS

$22.50 FOR $30.00 MODEL HATS

CERTAIN OTHER LESS EXPENSIVE MILLINERY FOR TOTS, MISSES AND WOMEN IS RE-PRICED LOWER

The large quantity of hat shapes and trimmings Wright-Metzler Company invests in for their two stores: the splendid ability of a style-schooled force of millinery workers and the constant demand all season for our in-fashion headwear, keeps the modes ever changing; the cost if production always lowest and the hats up to the mark that calls for the latest style-ideas soon as they appear.

Certain Trimmed Special $2.50 Children's Hats . . . $1.95
Certain Special $3.20 Misses' and Children's Hats . . . $2.48
Certain $4.25 Trimmed Hats for Young Women . . . $3.50
Certain of Our Famous $5 Hats, Fashionably Trimmed . . . $4.39

Stylish, Good Looking $6 and $6.50 Hats $5.00

For the children the hats are daintily shaped and lovely with ribbons and flowers. The larger girls' hats are becoming to young faces and modeled and trimmed after the later fashion ideas. The women's hats are widely varied as to shape and trimming; material and color. Modes are for present and all summer wear, distinctive of Wright-Metzler quality-goodness and different from the styles the season began with.
